Pam Vestal entered the field of genealogy after a 21-year career as a professional writer. She does genealogical research for clients, has articles published in the Association of Professional Genealogists Quarterly, and lectures up and down the West Coast.

Tips and Tricks: Finding What You Need and Making the Most of What You Find

With so much information available to us today, it can be hard to know how to find what we're looking for, or how to take full advantage of it after we've found it. Discover an assortment of techniques that can help you search the internet more successfully, extract those useful genealogical nuggets from your documents, access what you've found after you've filed it, and evaluate your evidence. We'll look at tools for locating overlooked records, understanding codes in documents, recovering missing websites, finding evidence of name changes, and much more.

Genealogical Pits I Have Fallen Into and How to Avoid Them!

Genealogy is a great treasure hunt, but sometimes the clues are easy to misunderstand, or to miss altogether. We'll look at eight pitfalls that can get us into trouble, and discuss strategies for dodging these traps so they won't keep you from reaching your goals.
