

House history resources at the Genealogical Forum of Oregon

Genealogical Forum of Oregon Library, 2505 SE 11th Avenue, Portland, OR 97202.

Web: <http://www.gfo.org>.

The Genealogical Forum of Oregon (GFO) has a large collection of library and online resources for the house historian. One can do the bulk of their house history work at the GFO library.

Summary of resources

City directories. City directories are one of the first resources used for tracing house histories. The GFO library has a large collection of Portland and other Oregon city directories.

Biographical material. Use the GFO printed resources to learn about whom the house inhabitants were.

High school and college yearbooks. The library has a large collection of Oregon yearbooks. Search the online catalog for titles. [<http://www.gfo.org>]

Multnomah County deeds. The library has a large collection of microfilmed Multnomah County deed indexes and deeds – mostly nineteenth century. For other indexes, deeds, and block books, visit the Multnomah County Public Research Room, Multnomah Building, 501 SE Hawthorne Blvd, Portland.

Donation Land Files. The library has the complete set of microfilmed Oregon Donation Land Claim files.

Books. See the selected list beginning on page 4. For others, see the GFO library catalog.
